The Territory I Come From

FORT ST. JOHN

Fort St. John, as well as other communities in NorthEastern BC and NorthWest AB rest on the traditional lands of the Beaver People, as well as the Michif Piyii (Métis) and Dënéndeh people. This area remained uncaded until May of 1900, as the Beaver People were the last to sign Treaty 8. There are several Reserves in this area such as the Beaton, Blueberry River and Doig River Reserves..
